

DIVISIONS INFORMATION

Nailympion competitions are considered international nail competitions where all nail professionals can participate regardless of their level or nationality. Professionals from around the world can compete applying to their level. There will be five divisions (or leagues) that will determine the level where contestants can be enrolled. This way, every participant will be judged based on his or her skills and level.

Students division:

This division is open to any student that is either currently enrolled in nail school or who have received certificates for completing basic courses and/or exams dating back from one year prior to the date of the competition. Every country will alter the dates to reflect a proper timeline. In Spain this period will be from September from the year before to the competition to November of the current year.
